SETTING: MISSA TRIURIENSIS, GABRIEL JACKSON (b.1962)

SUNG BY THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR

Our service this morning begins with the procession of the palms. After all have received palms the congregation will be invited to gather outside on the labyrinth.

The celebrant welcomes the people gathered around the Labyrinth

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of our Lord's death and resurrection. Today we come together to begin this solemn celebration in union with the Church throughout the world. Christ enters his very own city to complete his work as our Saviour, to suffer, to die, and to rise again. Let us go with him in faith and love, so that united with him in his sufferings, we may share his risen life.

MOTET

Pueri Hebraeorum vestimenta

The Hebrew children

prosternebant in via spread their garments in the way,

et clamabant dicentes:

and cried out, saying:

Hosanna Filio David,

Hosanna to the Son of David:

benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini.

blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord

Tomas Luis da Victoria (1548-1611)

Matthew 21: 8,9

The Liturgy of the Palms

The people hold up their palms while this prayer is said

God our Saviour,

your Son Jesus Christ entered Jerusalem as Messiah to suffer and to die;

let these palms be for us signs of his victory;

and grant that we who bear them in his name

may ever hail him as our King and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life;

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

now and for ever.

Amen.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke:
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately."' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

This is the gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The priest continues

Let us go forth, praising Jesus our Messiah.

Processional Hymn

*All glory, laud, and honour
To thee, Redeemer, King!
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.*

Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's Name comest,
The King and blessed one:
All glory, etc.

The congregation follow the cross and choir into the cathedral.

The company of angels
Are praising thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things
Created, make reply:
All glory, etc.

To thee, before thy Passion,
They sang their hymns of praise;
To thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise:
All glory, etc.

The people of the Hebrews
With palms before thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present:
All glory, etc.

Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.
All glory, etc.

Within that blessed City
Thy praises may we sing
And ever raise hosannas
To our most loving King.
All glory, etc.

Tune: Valet will ich dir geben

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, who, in your tender love towards the human race, sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross:
Grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility,
and also be made partakers of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

The servant of the LORD said: The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens – wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading

Luke 22: 14 – 23: 56

Please remain seated as the choir sings the Passion according to Luke.

The Prayers of the People

The response to each petition is:

Lord, have mercy.

At the end of the intercessions the Trisagion is said by all:

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Please stand

The Peace

The priest says

Once we were far off, but now in union with Christ Jesus we have been brought near through the shedding of Christ's blood, for he is our peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Those present may offer one another a sign of peace

The Offertory Hymn

My song is love unknown,
My Saviour's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown,
That they might lovely be.
O, who am I,
That for my sake
My Lord should take Frail flesh, and die?

Sometimes they strew his way,
And his sweet praises sing;
Resounding all the day
Hosannas to their King.
Then 'Crucify!'
Is all their breath,
And for his death
They thirst and cry.

He came from his blest throne,
Salvation to bestow:
But we made strange, and none
The longed-for Christ would know.
But O, my Friend,
My Friend indeed,
Who at my need
His life did spend!

They rise, and needs will have
My dear Lord made away;
A murderer they save,
The Prince of Life they slay.
Yet cheerful he
To suffering goes,
That he his foes
From thence might free.

Here might I stay and sing,
No story so divine;
Never was love, dear King,
Never was grief like thine!
This is my Friend,
In whose sweet praise
I all my days
Could gladly spend.

Tune: Love Unknown
John Ireland (1879-1962)

Samuel Crossman (1624-83) altd.

The Taking of the Bread and Wine

Jesus, true vine and bread of life, ever giving yourself that the world might live,
let us share your death and passion:
make us perfect in your love.
Amen

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us therefore let us celebrate the feast.

The Great Thanksgiving

It is indeed right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
For as the time of his passion and resurrection draws near the whole world is called to acknowledge his hidden majesty.
The power of the life-giving cross reveals the judgement that has come upon the world and the triumph of Christ crucified.
He is the victim who dies no more,
the Lamb once slain, who lives for ever,
our advocate in heaven to plead our cause,
exalting us there to join with angels and archangels,
for ever praising you and singing:

The choir sings

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis.
heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest!
Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

All remain standing

Blessed are you, Father, the creator and sustainer of all things;
you made us in your own image, male and female you created us;
even when we turned away from you, you never ceased to care for us, but in your love and mercy you freed us from the slavery of sin, giving your only begotten Son to become man and suffer death on the cross to redeem us:
he made there the one complete and all-sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world:
he instituted,
and in his holy Gospel commanded us to continue,

a perpetual memory of his precious death
until he comes again.

On the night that he was betrayed he took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat,
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he gave it to them, saying, Drink this, all of you,
for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

The choir and people sing

Accept through him, our great high priest,
this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving;
and as we eat and drink these holy gifts,
grant by the power of the life-giving Spirit that we may be made one in your holy Church and partakers of the body and blood of your Son, that he may dwell in us and we in him:
Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours,
Almighty Father,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us we are bold to say
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The priest breaks the consecrated bread for communion and says

The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.
We being many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Communion

Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God, who has taken away the sins of the world.
Happy are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Please sit while the choir sings

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Wherever you are from and whatever you believe you are welcome at the table of the Lord. If you require a gluten free wafer please indicate this to the priest.

The Communion Motet

Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the King of Israel, blessed be the Kingdom. Peace in heav'n, and glory in the highest places. Hosanna in the highest heav'ns.

Orlando Gibbons (1583 - 1625)

Matthew 21

The Great Silence

The silence is broken by the post-communion prayer.

Going Out as God's People

Prayer after Communion

Lord Jesus Christ,
you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant
and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation.
Give us the mind to follow you and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father. Amen

Father of all, we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love,
gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.

All say:

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand

The Post-Communion Hymn

O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels thy blood
So freely spilt for me:
A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone;
A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within:

A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect and right and pure and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.
My heart, thou know'st, can never rest
Till thou create my peace;
Till of mine Eden repossess,
From self and sin, I cease.
Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart,
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new best name of love.

Tune: Stockton

Thomas Wright (1763–1829)

Adapted from a chorale in Musicalisches Hand-Buch, Hamburg 1690

Charles Wesley (1707–88)

The Blessing & Dismissal

The priest blesses the people with these words

May the Father, who so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
bring you by faith to his eternal life.

Amen.

May Christ,
who accepted the cup of sacrifice in obedience to the Father's will, keep you steadfast as you walk with him the way of his cross.

Amen.

May the Spirit,
who strengthens us to suffer with Christ
that we may share his glory, set your minds on life and peace.

Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

The deacon sings

Go in the peace of Christ

The choir and the people sing

Please stand for the procession of choir and clergy and sit for the

Organ Voluntary
